Weekly Word

Dear Fellow Followers of the Way,

This past Sunday we heard the story at the beginning of Acts 2, the gift of the Holy Spirit that was given when the community of believers was gathered together. If we had continued in the story, we would have read Peter's sermon and the baptism of 3,000 people that day. After the people had been baptized, we learn that the people "devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, the breaking of bread and the prayers" (v 42).

Sunday night we had that same opportunity as we gathered to celebrate in our new fellowship hall. We gathered over a meal and enjoyed a time of fellowship and worship. Our new space will hopefully see this repeated with great frequency in the months and years to come.

God can do great things in our midst, particularly when we gather as the Body of Christ. As we gather for worship or for fellowship, we are made more complete as more people gather together. We all have unique gifts and callings and the presence of each one is important.

As we enter the summer, people will begin to travel. When your travels take you away from Austin, find a local congregation to worship with where ever you may be. When you are in town, come and gather with us at Westminster. Even when you may not feel like coming, your presence may be the very thing that uplifts another believer. Remember that you are important and you are needed. Come and join with the Body of Christ on Sunday mornings and let the Spirit move you!

Grace, mercy and Peace,
Karen

Fellowship Hall Dedication

Nearly 250 Westminster members and friends attended the May 31 dedication event. Chip Somerville and the members of the Building Committee were recognized for their many years of dedicated service to the project.

A number of special visitors joined us for the evening: The Rev. Roy Sherrod (Pastor of Westminster 1951-57) and his son Jeff; Mary Cochran Schlottman, wife of the late Rev. Joe Cochran (Pastor of Westminster from 1967-75); Josie Champion, (former choir director); Eric McCreless, daughter of Pat McCreless, (Westminster's former organists). Charter member Ruth Brownlow was able to join us for the evening. Ruth has attended every dedication event at Westminster since the 1947 founding of the congregation! Also joining us for her first official outing was Emily Rogers, six-week-old daughter of David and Lisa Rogers.

Thank you to all of those who contributed to making the May 31 Dedication Event such a wonderful celebration. We're especially grateful for Catherine Colvin, Angela Oliver, and members of the Fellowship Committee who decorated Fellowship Hall with Pentecost balloons and "tongues of fire" napkins. Kudos as well to Corrinne Bowers and Susan Cockburn who assisted in preparing the evening's program and presentations.

A Note from Former Members

Dear Friends,

What a great time to celebrate as you open up and begin to use the new building. Bill and I thought about trying to come for the dedication, but it is very hard to travel--Bill has developed pretty severe arthritis in his lower spine, we see the spine doctor next week. I am getting around much better after the rheumatoid doctor put injections into my knees, so who knows how long that will last. Know that we will be with you in spirit and I will be in the choir space, hiding out in a corner somewhere, celebrating those who are getting a little older and find the stairs to the old choir loft a real challenge. so, enjoy, enjoy, enjoy and may God continue to bless you with prosperity and his Grace.

Love, Betty Milstead and Bill Holden

Music Written for the New Westminster Fellowship Hall

What will we do in the Fellowship Hall?

Practice the Kingdom of God

Dedicated to the new Fellowship Hall, Westminster Presbyterian Church

May 31, 2009

Words by Catherine Colvin

Music by Adrienne Inglis, ASCAP

Verses:

Open the doors while we close out our fears.
Feed hungry people and starve out despair.
Cherish each other and slight selfish pride.
Teach wisdom gently and live to inspire.

Share with the world and hoard kindly thoughts.
Grieve for our losses yet celebrate love.

Refrain:

Practice the Kingdom of God.
Fling wide the gates of our hearts.
As we are given, we freely give.
So practice the Kingdom of God.

A Revelation at the Grocery Store

On Monday I ran into Manos' Executive Director Julie Ballesteros at HEB with two heaping shopping carts. I asked what was up. The Capital Area Food Bank was out of everything we needed and she had to restock the Food Pantry from a regular grocery store! Expensive for Manos.

Please remember that this Sunday is when we collect food for the pantry. Manos needs it more now than ever! Be generous and thank the Lord you are able to do it!

The food pantry priority needs are cereal, canned tomatoes, canned pasta, canned beans, canned fruit. Any non-perishables can be used.

First Sunday - "Feed and be Fed"

Where Are the Cookies?!?!

One of Westminster's most treasured traditions is After Church Cookies. A generous set of 30+ volunteers bring cookies and treats throughout the year for us to enjoy following the 11:00 worship service. We've been serving the cookies in the Library, but it's getting harder and harder to fit our crowd into that space, so the cookies are moving to the new Fellowship Hall effective June 7. If you're a Cookie Host, please store your cookies in the kitchen before worship. You can sneak out of worship a little early to place them on the table that will be set up in the Fellowship Hall.

Sunday Morning Parking on Exposition Blvd.

You are welcome to park on the west side of Exposition Blvd. on Sunday mornings. However, if you park on the street, please do not park in the one space at the corner of Exposition and Carlton Road. There is a sign there that says, "No parking here to corner," and is there to keep that space open so persons attempting to turn on to Exposition can see to make their turn at this blind intersection.

Thank you for your cooperation!

Congratulations to Graduates

Brandy Wojcik graduated from UT

Margaret Shaw graduated with an MS Degree in Political Science from the University of Mississippi

Emily Sullivan graduated with an MTS from Vanderbilt Divinity School

Adam Long graduated from St. Stephen's Episcopal School. Adam received The Dobbie Leverton Fenton Medal, which is awarded annually to a member of the senior class who lives his/her life promoting the values of social justice. This award was inspired by Dobbie Leverton Fenton, beloved former student and St. Stephen's teacher, advisor, and friend who lived a life of compassionate service.

Columbarium Niches Now Available

Columbarium niches are now available for Westminster members to reserve. All Westminster members, former members, and family members are eligible to reserve a niche. More information can be found in the recently adopted columbarium policy which is available online at the church website, wpcaustin.org/columbarium.cfm, or in the church office.

From Previous Connections

Interfaith Hospitality Network Information

This year our congregation has an exciting opportunity to participate in mission very close to home through participation in the Interfaith Hospitality Network. Our first opportunity to host is coming up September 6th – 12th, 2009 (Labor Day).

You are invited to sign up to volunteer at the mission bulletin board in the narthex or email David Rose - daviddouglasrose@gmail.com

Weekly Prayer

All are welcome to a time of prayer at 12:15 p.m. each Thursday in the south transept of the sanctuary. The time is brief, about a half hour, but important and meaningful in the life of our congregation. You are always welcome--

Women in Black

Women in Black stand Wednesday noon hour vigils for peace in front of the State Capitol, 11th and Congress Avenue. You-- woman or man, in black or not, for an hour or any time less than that--are invited to come on any Wednesday.
